FREQUENT QUESTIONS

What are the age requirements?

There are no age limitations or waiting period.

How many claims maximum per plan?

There is no limitation, all plans cover all the beneficiaries.

Does this cover foreigners? Do they have to be legal, have Visas or Green cards?

There is no immigration status or Social Security number required.

Can I include my children or parents who live in another state?

Yes, you can also include family members in other countries.

Can I use this with any funeral home?

Yes, although in order to obtain the discounts NASER should propose and appoint the funeral home to perform the services. Plan members should NEVER CONTACT a funeral home directly.

Can an undocumented person get buried here in the US, if that's what they choose?

Yes, they just need to buy their own plot.

Does it require a bank account, or can I use a credit card?

It can be billed to a credit card or debit card.

If one person dies, can another person be added on?

No, the plan is only for the members already enrolled.

When does the membership expire?

Every plan expires at the 12th month unless is renewed.

One event per family or as many events as the plan covers?

It will cover all the members as they pass away. As long as the holder or a plan member keeps renewing, all surviving members maintain their benefits.

Can I sign my parents up without them signing off on it?

Yes, they are not required to sign anything, the "holder" enrolls the beneficiaries.

What happens to the rest of the group of 10 if someone dies?

Nothing, they remain protected as long as they keep paying and renewing their plan.

Does it cover grandchildren or only if the grandparent is the legal custodian?

Grandchildren and grandparents are eligible beneficiaries.

Do you have to be married on these plans?

It is not required to be married, domestic partners and same sex partners are eligible.

What information or documents does the member receive?

Members receive a digital package after enrollment, containing a welcome letter, with a pre-printed membership card.
